

I don't usually get involved with political debates but this one just gets me upset because we are paying for the service. This is NOT public radio!! the FCC should stay out and reject petition 04-160.